

YES or NO

- ___ 1. Had the Laodiceans had advantage of apostolic teaching?
(Col. 4:16)
- ___ 2. Do you find anything for which Christ praised the Laodiceans?
- ___ 3. Do you know why Christ prefers a cold person to a lukewarm one? * See note below.
- ___ 4. Is it possible for material possessions to be a curse to Christians?
- ___ 5. Do you allow material things to keep you from serving Christ?
- ___ 6. Is verse 14 stating that Christ was a created being?
- ___ 7. Did you know that a lukewarm person or church makes Christ sick?
- ___ 8. Is chastening sometimes good for us? (Hebrews 12:5-11)
- ___ 9. May an entire church be deceived as to Christ's presence in it?
- ___ 10. Do you believe one must beg and wrestle with Jesus to be accepted?

TRUE OR FALSE

- ___ 1. In a context of zeal, a "cold" person is one who is saved.
(2Pet 2:20-22 Acts 13:46)
- ___ 2. A "lukewarm" person is a fine influence for Christ and the church.
- ___ 3. A church or person, rich and increased in goods, needs nothing.
- ___ 4. There are few things one can put before Christ without losing Him.
- ___ 5. A true Christian can commune with Christ without being a part of His church.
- ___ 6. Physically, many people desire to be wretched, miserable, poor, and blind.

*Note: Laodicea had natural hot baths and a cold fresh stream flowing down from the mountains. Both were enjoyable and good, but when mixed they were neausating. Both the "hot" and "cold" in this context could be good. But if considered in the context of Rev. 3:19 and a context of "zeal" there would be a difference. A "cold" Christian could be easily recognized and cut off.

(Please put the verse(s) number that provides the answer in the margin.)
